4. Customer obligations. The Customer must ensure that all information supplied to AVetSM is accurate and complete, and agrees that AVetSM is not obliged to check the accuracy or completeness of any information provided by the Customer.

5. Testing material a) The Customer is responsible for the Testing Material, including the sufficiency of its quantity and form, provision of adequate information in respect of any safety or health hazards and any special procedures in connection with the handling, testing, storage, transport, disposal of the Testing Material and all costs and expenses in connection with the delivery of the Testing Materials to AVetSM. b) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (i) AVetSM will not in any way be liable for any damage to the Testing Material; (ii) the Testing Material, once in the possession of AVetSM, becomes the property of AVetSM; (iii) Testing Material for semen morphology will be stored for up to 2 years if deemed by AVetSM to be received from Customer adequately preserved, of adequate volume and in suitable undamaged leak proof screw lid with o-ring containers; (iv) the Testing Material may be altered, damaged or destroyed in the course of providing the Services or storage and AVetSM will not in any way be liable for such alteration, damage or destruction; (v) AVetSM is not obliged to return the Testing Material, whether in its original form or otherwise, to the Customer, unless otherwise agreed to be returned by AVetSM at the cost of the Customer; and

6. Warranties a) The Customer acknowledges that by its very nature the conduct of testing of samples and materials, including the provision of the Services, is not a field in which accurate or exact results will always be produced. In addition, the testing of Testing Materials, and results that may be obtained from the Services, may be impacted by a number of factors outside of the control of AVetSM. The Customer acknowledges that these matters all limit the ability of the Customer to rely upon the results and any Reports prepared by AVetSM. The Customer agrees that it will only rely upon such results and Reports for any specific purpose consented to by AVetSM in the Specimen Advice/Submission Form. b) To the extent permitted by law, AVetSM excludes all terms, conditions, warranties and guarantees either expressed or implied by law or statute.

7. Intellectual property a) All intellectual property rights in any documents, materials or Reports prepared by AVetSM in the course of providing the Services are owned by AVetSM. b) Subject to the payment of the Fees by the Customer in accordance with clause 11, AVetSM grants the Customer a perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive and royalty-free licence to use the Reports for the Customer's internal business purposes. c) If any Report is used in research projects, the Customer must ensure that AVetSM is acknowledged in any publications.

8. Liability a) To the extent permitted by law, AVetSM excludes all liability for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss of profit, business or goodwill. b) To the extent permitted by law, AVetSM's liability to the Customer is limited to, at AVetSM's option, supplying the Services again or paying the cost of having the Services supplied again. AVetSM is not liable to any third party that is not a Customer and excludes all liability whatsoever to such parties arising out of or in connection with the Services. c) The total liability of AVetSM, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), under statute or otherwise will not exceed the Fees paid by the Customer to AVetSM. d) AVetSM will not be liable for any breach, failure or other act or omission arising under or in connection with these terms and conditions to the extent that such breach, failure or other act or omission is caused or contributed to by the Customer, its employees, agents or contractors. e) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that AVetSM may be required to disclose or provide Testing Material, Reports and other materials received or generated by it under or in connection with these terms and conditions to any court, government body or regulator pursuant to any legal or other compulsory process. The Customer consents to such disclosure.

13. Dispute resolution The parties agree that if any dispute arises between them they will make a genuine effort to resolve it without resorting to litigation. Nothing in this clause will prevent either party from seeking urgent interlocutory relief from any courts.

14. Termination a) A party may terminate this agreement if the other party breaches a term of this agreement and does not remedy that breach within 14 days of notice in writing requesting it to remedy the breach. b) AVetSM may terminate this agreement immediately, by written notice to the Customer, if the Customer becomes, or in the reasonable opinion of AVetSM is likely to become, subject to any form of insolvency, administration, receivership, bankruptcy or liquidation. c) On termination, the Customer must pay AVetSM all Fees for work undertaken by AVetSM as at the date of termination.
